Job Description

St. Margaret's Church is an adaptable, hospitable building located within an outer estate, about five miles from the centre of Birmingham. We have a small congregation dedicated to serving the local community.

We aim to strengthen connections between church and community and to develop faith and spirituality amongst the families in the community we love and serve. This post gives plenty of scope for innovation and a creative pioneering approach to working with families.

We are therefore seeking someone with proven experience for this new post and hope the right candidate will have the enthusiasm and drive to:

- have a heart for people, especially those experiencing challenging circumstances or with vulnerabilities.
- engage with young families and develop their involvement within our community.
- develop new ideas to engage children and young people.
- develop and nurture volunteers
- develop a fresh expression of being church.
