Background to the project
Anawim is an independent charity originally founded by the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity. The trustees include representatives from Father Hudson’s Society and Our Lady of Charity who work with them in partnership to develop the work, their joint vision and ethos continue to inspire the project. Anawim seeks to support women who are vulnerable due to poverty, homelessness, abuse, rape, addictions, and may be drawn into prostitution and/or offending as a consequence. It recognises prostitution as exploitation of women. All staff, whether working in a paid or voluntary capacity, are expected to respect and work to the core values of respecting others, valuing all, and belief in the possibility of a life lived to the full.

Background to this post
Applicants for this post need to have experience of working with women to support them with a range of needs.

Aim:
To work with women arrested by the Police to encourage access into support services as a diversion from the criminal justice system while working alongside the existing team to offer direct holistic support and access into the courses and services offered at Anawim. Women identified as having suffered trauma and abusing substances will be assessed for suitability for Seeking Safety group. Team consists of service manager, 2 New Chance caseworkers and alongside 2 Liaison & Diversion workers and psychologist.
