Pilgrim’s Progress – How are YOU doing?
Saturday 31st January 2015
10.00am to 12.40pm approx.

This morning-workshop given by Beresford and Kate King-Smith is based on a session which they led at a Christian Conference in USA in the summer of 2014. It does NOT require an intimate knowledge of the original book.

A glance through John Bunyan’s biblical allegory, with ‘on-screen’ illustrations, and a chance to ask ourselves how our own life-journeys compare with those of Christian, the central character in Part 1 of the famous book.

How, for example, do we cope when we find ourselves in ‘The Slough of Despond’? – or when faced with ‘Giant Despair’? Do we encounter any problems with ‘Mister Worldly Wiseman’, or in ‘Vanity Fair’? – and what about our reaction to a different kind of danger: trouble with ‘Mister Legality, in the City of Morality’? – and all on a long journey from ‘The City of Destruction’ to ‘The Heavenly City’.

There is no charge for this event.
