

Birmingham City Mission

Vacancy

Children's Evangelist

BCM is looking to appoint a new children's worker with a passion for outreach to join an existing team serving Birmingham children aged 5 -11 years. Most of the work takes place in primary schools and comprises: leading acts of collective worship, taking part in RE lessons, and leading after school clubs. The team reaches approximately 49,000 children with the gospel message every term. The team is also involved in holiday clubs, weekend camps and other outreach activities designed for 5 -11s.

The ideal candidate will be a godly evangelical Christian who will have demonstrated a heart for children's ministry. He or she will have worked with children in either a paid or voluntary capacity on a full or part-time basis, possibly as a post graduate ministry trainee.

The candidate will have:

- A full driving licence;
- The personality and ability to engage children's interest;
- Experience in delivering Christian material to children; and
- Some formal training in Bible handling, or be willing to be trained.

The offer of this post will be subject to enhanced DBS clearance and satisfactory references.

Start date: September 2018
