Heritage Days
Saturday 19 and Sunday 20 September, 2.00 pm
St Alphege Church

800 years ago, Hugh de Odingsells provided a church for the new community in Solihull. Come in and visit the church. There will be guided tours and refreshments for visitors.

Ecumenical Vespers
Saturday 3 October, 7pm
St Augustine's Church

Come and share in worship to celebrate our shared Christian heritage. Both St Augustine and St Alphege were former Archbishops of Canterbury.

"Where do we go from here?"
Saturday 7 November, 12.30pm – 3.30pm
Oliver Bird Hall

This event will include lunch and a time to think about what the vision for the church in 50 years' time might be like. There will be speakers and an opportunity for discussion and questions.

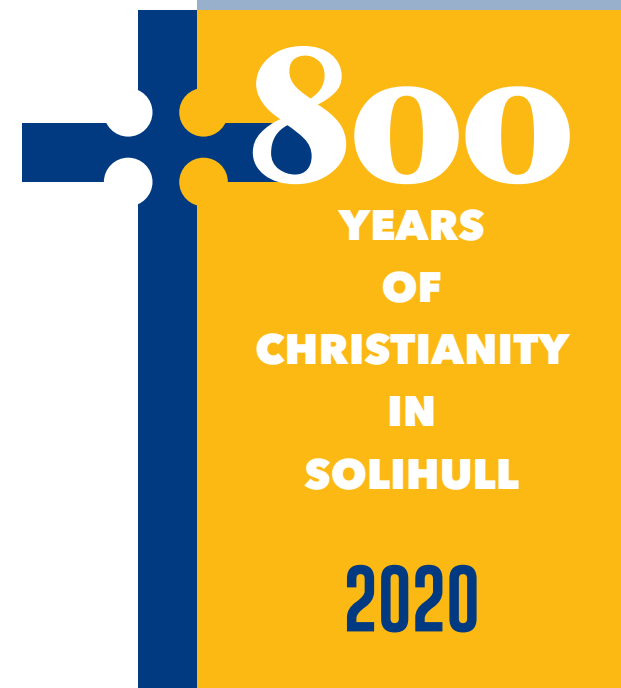

800 Acts of Kindness
all through 2020
throughout Solihull and beyond

As part of our celebrations, we aim to record more than 800 Acts of Kindness (big or small) carried out in Solihull Borough. Individuals, groups, churches, schools – everyone - can be involved. Just decide on an Act of Kindness and then complete it! Register it online or use one of our cards found at your local church.
