

PERCEPTIONS OF CHRISTIANITY

FROM PEOPLE OF DIFFERENT FAITHS

BY RICHARD TETLOW

PERCEPTIONS OF CHRISTIANITY FROM PEOPLE OF DIFFERENT FAITHS

TO SEE OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US

RICHARD TETLOW

Enthralling... enriching at a
very deep level...
a contemporary approach

Brian Pearce, OBE, Director,
Inter Faith Network UK
1987-2007

...huge experience
and real authority...

Stephen Pattison, Professor of Religion, Ethics and Practice,
Birmingham University

332 pages.
Published 01/11/18
by AuthorHouse

RRP £15.95. Available from richardtetlow@btinternet.com

£12.00 (paperback) + £2.65 P&P

Richard Tetlow, previously inner London social case and community worker, university lecturer and Birmingham Ladywood inner-city vicar, 1989-2008; now a trustee of Progressive Christianity Network (PCN Britain) and convenes PCN Birmingham and two Birmingham interfaith groups.

Five people, each of a different faith,
share their perceptions of Christianity.
Five Christians respond.
The author reflects.

Listen to each other.
Enjoy meeting new people.
Share mutual respect in troubled times.

An old principle, for modern times.
The label not priority, but love between and among us, whatever our faith.

A hopeful and honest book.
Positive, progressive and personal.