

Part-time Youth Worker required

The gap* is seeking a male youth worker who is able to engage with marginalised young people.

15 hours per week - Salary £9.50 per hr

Salary in line with NJC National Rates

The gap* is a youth outreach project supported by local churches in Sutton Coldfield. We aim to build relationships that allow for us to identify issues that young people may have and to be able to invest time, resources and support helping them to develop their skills, potential and social responsibility.

This is a challenging but exciting role involving working as part of a team with young people aged 13-19. Reporting to a Senior Youth Leader, the successful applicant would be working primarily through the Venue, a drop-in centre in Sutton Coldfield Town. They will also be called to be part of the gap*'s HeadSpace programme working in schools supporting young people struggling with Mental Health or Well-being issues. The role is suited to someone who has a passion for Jesus and for young people.

There is an occupational requirement for the postholder to be a practising Christian in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.
